LOCAL BRIEFS.

Nothing doing at the Police Court yesterday.

U. S. Senator M. W. Ransom was in the city yesterday.

Itinerant ice cream venders are driving a lucrative business during this hot season.

Business quite dull in the city yesterday, notwithstanding it was Saturday.

A new city pump is being put down at the corner of Salisbury and Martin streets.

Hillsboro street is used much these afternoons for driving purposes. It often presents an appearance of much life.

The father of Mr. Churchill, who is at present very low with consumption, and his sister are at the National hotel with him at present.

When will work commence on the new postoffice and the proposed Masonic Temple, is a question being frequently asked, but not satisfactorily answered?

Many of our citizens contemplate spending their summer at the watering places, by the seaside or in the mountains. We, unfortunately, belong to the stay-at-home crowd.

The concert on Thursday night last, for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, realized $149.45; of this amount $102.20, net proceeds, were turned over to the Orphan Asylum fund.

Alcott has put a new color on his present store front. If the building was sent up another story, and elegantly corniced, it would add greatly to the appearance of the block, and the value of the property.

Mr. Gilbert has refused to divide time with Mr. Snow in the canvass. His namesake, Martin Van Buren, would never have backed under in such a way. But a rose by any other name, smells just as sweet, and after all, we may see it Snow in August.

An old darkey, applying at the Postoffice in this city a few days since for his copy of the WEEKLY NEWS, was told that he owed five cents for a quarter's postage. He said that "he was a 'publican, but the NEWS was the best paper he ever read, and he must have it, cost what it might."

Attention is directed to the medical card of Dr. James W. Alston, who has located permanently in this city. The Doctor has the advantage of a life time experience in the healing art, and brings with him from his former patrons testimonial of the highest order.

There have been no startling changes in the fashions this spring and summer. Since Dolly Varden died our Jenkins' has had a season of rest, but he must look out for a stunner before long, somewhere's about the back of the head or bustle which will open his eyes. This state of inactivity cannot last long, thank Heaven.

The raids in Chatham county are complaining that in the infernal revenue business all the officers sent to their happy hunting-grounds are from some other county and not their own. They are hungry for a bite of meat once in awhile, and say that if "blow-your-horn" Billy don't make a change they will go back on him next election.

Theobald Mayer, the young German, who was recently drowned at Penny's pond, left Fatherland to escape the tyrannical service in the army. He crossed the ocean to lose his life in a duck pond. When drawn up, the corpse was rigid, with arms and legs extended as if he were crawling on the bottom seeking to escape. He was buried in the Catholic burying grounds. Peace to the stranger's ashes.

GREENSBORO ON THE NEWS.—Our friend, Mr. Smith, (not John,) the Great North American House Movist, has been engaged by the authorities of Greensboro to open up several new streets in that burg, which will necessitate the removal of a number of houses. Mr. Smith goes there in a few days and will be some months or more engaged in the work.

The many friends of Dr. Palmer will be glad to read the following dispatch to a gentleman in this city:

"CLAYTON, NEW YORK, July 10, '73.

Just arrived on Yacht "Onole." I am taking a short run for pleasure. Had a fine sail down the St. Lawrence from Kinston to-day. Come up this summer and have some good fishing. Leave to-morrow morning for Montreal.

W. J. PALMER."

The post-office in this city city is at present entirely without the new postal cards. The Postmaster has had an order for some in Washington for two weeks but the demand for them from all portions of the country is so heavy that his order has not been filled. He hopes to have them on hand, however, in a few days. The Department at Washington is printing some million every day.

THE CONCERT FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE ORPHAN ASYLUM.—The following account of the entertainment at Tucker Hall on Thursday evening last was prepared for yesterday morning's issue, but was unfortunately crowded out by other important matter:

We were pleased to see the large crowd that greeted the performers at the Concert given at Tucker Hall on Thursday evening, for the benefit of the orphans at the Oxford Asylum.

A notice of Major Gales' introductory address will be found elsewhere.

The crowd was enthusiastic in its plaudits at the close of each piece, and enconiums from the most critical judges were lavished upon the young ladies and gentlemen for the handsome manner in which they acquitted themselves.

Miss Carrie Jenkins, Miss Cooke and Miss Edins were ably assisted by a number of our young gentlemen, to wit: Messrs. V. Royster, Wm. Simpson, George C. Jordan, W. S. Primrose and Lieutenant Howell, of the United States Army.

To Miss Jenkins too much praise cannot be arwarded, as it was mainly through her individual efforts that the Concert was gotten up. This accomplished and estimable young lady has the satisfaction of knowing that her efforts were crowned with success, and that a very handsome amount was realized from the proceeds of the exhibition. Such conduct is worthy of imitation and the daughters of North Carolina cannot devote their labors in behalf of a worthier cause.

The singing of Miss Cooke brought down the house and was repeatedly encored. She has a remarkably sweet voice, well cultivated and musical, and it was a real delight to hear her sing.

Of Miss Edins, our readers already know our opinion and it is only necessary to say that she sustained her reputation as "our North Carolina mocking-bird."

To Lieutenant Hall we are requested to return special thanks for his admirable violin performance.

TO THE POLICY HOLDERS OF THE WILMINGTON N. C., LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—As a good many persons held policies in this Company, we publish the following letter from its late President as a matter of interest:

Disappointment in the extent of patronage which was expected from the people of North Carolina, and anxious that no damage should be sustained by those who had given us their support, the Board of Directors, after full deliberation, and under the advice of Mr. Sheppard Homans, of New York, one of the most accomplished and eminent Actuaries of this country, have concluded it best for the interests both to our Policy-holders and Stockholers, to wind up our business and transfer our risks to another Company.

We have accordingly, under the advice of Mr. Homans, entered into a contract with the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, by which that Company assumes all our Insurance obligations under outstanding Polices, from and after July 1st, 1873.

In making this contract we have had special reference to the security and advantage to our Policy-holders, and feeling assured that the company referred to is under the best management and possesses every important element of stability and success, we have no hesitation in commending it to the fullest confidence and generous patrotage of the people of our State.

By order of the Directors.

A. J. DEROSSET, President.

Wilmington, N. C., July 3, 1873.

TEST OF THE HYDRO-CARBON GAS MACHINES.—We give place with pleasure to the following certificate concerning a test of the new gas machines which have been introduced into this city by Messrs. Brewster, Thiem & Co.:

RALEIGH, N. C., July 12, '73.

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, were present Saturday at the test of the Hydro-Carbon Gas Machine:

The Carburettor being put in a large tub, packed all around with ice and salt. A thermometer being placed in the same, remaining in that position, until the thermometer indicated 26 degrees below freezing point, "thoroughly exploding the idea, parties have asserted, "that it would not carborate in cold weather."

A Gem of a Speech.

MESSRS. EDITORS: Allow me to express the gratification which I experienced in listening to the brief speech of Seaton Gales, Esq., on Thursday evening last, in Tucker Hall, introducing the performances on the occasion and explaining the objects of the Orphan's Asylum at Oxford. It seems to me that Charles Dickens himself could not have conceived and prepared a more touching or appropriate speech than this was for the occasion; and no man could have delivered the speech with more genuine Christian emotion, or more faultlessly than Mr. Gales did. I regret that this real orator, who speaks from the heart to the heart with so much effect, and so much to the delight of his auditors, is not more frequently called upon to exercise his rare gifts. But he is as modest as he is gifted and accomplished. Our people of all parties, sects and classes should cherish such a man.

A NORTH CAROLINIAN.

Raleigh, N. C., July 11, 1873.

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.—At a special meeting of Raleigh Hook & Ladder Company, No. 1., held last Friday evening, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That to Chief Engineer Banks, our special thanks are due for his kind attention and unbounded liberality, during our visit, and we assure him that he will always be remembered with pleasure by the Firemen of Raleigh.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to Chief Engineer Banks, with the request that he will present them to the Fire Department of Fayetteville.

At a regular meeting of Henderson Lodge, No. 229, on the 10th inst., it was unanimously agreed that George Badger Harris be requested to deliver an address, setting forth the objects and ends to be obtained by the zealous and hearty support of the Orphan Asylum at Oxford, N. C., now under the energetic control of Bro. J. H. Mills. The address will be delivered on Thursday the 14th day of August, in the Baptist church, at Henderson, at 11 o'clock a. m. All Masons and others are cordially invited to attend.

Committee of arrangements: A. B. Andrews, E. G. Cheatham, Harville Harriss and W. T. Cheatham.

SAD DEATH.—We are pained to announce the death of Miss Lizzie Moore, a neice of Judge Reade, of the Supreme Court, which occurred last evening at the Yarbrough House about 8:30 o'clock. Miss Moore arrived in this city on the 19th of last month from the eastern part of the State sick of an intermittent fever, which soon assumed a very serious nature, and resulted in the sad manner above stated. The young lady is spoken of by those who knew her as being a lovely character and bounteously endowed with those qualities that render one attractive.

NOTICE TO OWNERS OF DOGS.

By an ordinance of the City of Raleigh, passed at the last regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners, I am required, after the 10th inst., to have impounded all canines caught in the street upon which the city tax has not been paid; and after the expiration of two days, if the owners of the impounded dogs do not come forward and pay the tax and the cost of impounding, to dispatch them. This ordinance I shall put in immediate execution.

In order to protect dogs upon which the tax has been paid, I have obtained collar badges, and the same can be had upon application by owners of dogs whenever a tax receipt, signed by the City Clerk, is exhibited. All dogs found without this badge will be impounded. Owners will therefore save trouble and expense by applying immediately for the badges.

The sum of fifty cents will be paid by the city to any person for the capture and delivery at the city pound, of any dog going at large without the tax badge.

MADRID, July 12.—The defeat of the Government troops under General Cabriently by the Carlists, commanded by Saballs, is attributed to a lack of descipline in the Republican force. The troops which were captured by the insurgents surrendered almost without firing a shot.

BAYONNE, July 12.—Advices received here from Carlist sources state that the insurgent Cheiftain Sierro, with a band of 5,000 men including fifty-five cavalry, has crossed the river Ebro and entered Old Castle, where he is organizing risings of Carlists. There is much agitation in Burges and many of the inhabitants in that province are enlisting under the banner of Don Carlos.

Several bands of Carlists have appeared in the province of Leon. There are three chiefs in Galacia, each at the head of an organized force.

MADRID, July 10.—The Minister of War in the Cortes confirmed the defeat of the Republicans near Pissall and the death of Commander Cobriently. He also confirms the report of Internationalist excesses in Alcoy.

The mayor of Alcoy, whom the Internationalists assassinated, was a thorough Republican and spent a fortune in the cause. The body was dragged through the streets by the mob. The Collector of Taxes was also assassinated and the body treated with the same indignity.

From New York.

NEW YORK, July 12th.—The steamer Tigress has passed down the bay and will sail for Discoe on Monday.

A letter from an Indian agent in Texas states that he expects some 1,500 Kickapoo and Pottowattomie Indians and 2,000 Lipans and Messcellero Indians will return from Mexico and go upon the reservations assigned them.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—A special says that a combination has been formed of whiskey dealers and railroad men, to operate on the next Congress, to repeal certain internal revenue laws deemed inimical to their interests. It was reported in Brooklyn last evening, that Kate Stoddard, who is still confined in the captain's room at the Police station, had attempted to commit suicide. There is a woman in the room with her to see that she does not carry out her threat, but it is feared that even this precaution will not be sufficient to save her life if she is kept confined there much longer. She was very restless last evening, after hearing that the police had captured her trunk and obtained possession of Goddriches peoperty. Once or twice she begged to be let alone in the room, but her request was not granted. Some say that she is already insane, and does not really know what she is talking about. Others say that she is only feigning insanity, under advice of her counsel, who have long since been retained to defend her.

An Alleged Imposter.

NORFOLK, July 12.—The report based on the statement of one W. H. Wuin, purporting to be mate of the vessel, was yesterday telegraphed North and published by local papers that the schooner R. E. Thompson, from Baltimore for Wilmington, had been run into and sunk off Hatteras, and that the captain, wife and four children and all hands, excepting the aforesaid Wuin, were drowned.

The Associated Press agent does not credit the statement, but believes Wuin to be an imposter.

Frank Whipple, one of the robbers, entered the bank and presented a pistol at Mr. Jewett's head. Jewett fell down and made his way to the desk where Mr. Bingham, Chief Clerk, was writing. Whipple leaped over the counter followed by Mr. Bingham who instantly shot Whipple in the neck. A desperate and general fight then ensued; several shots were fired, when the combatants clubbed their pistols. Finally, Whipple turned to run out of the Bank, when Bingham and Jewett simultaneously fired upon him with double barrelled shot guns, and he fell mortally wounded on the sidewalk. Whipple says he had two confederates.

Spanish Affairs.

MADRID, July 12.—There is serious trouble in Malaga. Yesterday while a bull fight was in progress the people of the city rose against the municipality and many excesses occurred. Among atrocious acts committed was the assassination of several counsellors. The government has received a telegraphic despatch from the Governor of Malaga tendering his resignation. Lt. General Sanchez Bregna has received orders to hasten to Navarre and take command of the army of the North in person.

A report was in circulation this morning that a crisis in the Ministry was imminent, but it was soon pronounced to be without foundation. The cabinet is thoroughly united and resolved to repress all disorder.

Upon the assembling of the Cortes to-day Senor Suver, Minister of the Colonies, presented and read a bill, applying to the Island of Porto Rico the Constitutional clauses of 1869, with reference to individual rights, also applying the same clauses to the Island of Cuba, with the exception of the territory occupied by the insurgents.

SUNDAY.....JULY 13, 1873.

OUR LIVING AND OUR DEAD.

As we remarked yesterday, we think Col. Pool's second issue of his historical paper an improvement of the first.

As we wish to see this valuable publication in the hands of every Confederate soldier and of every citizen who feels an interest in the brilliant war record of North Carolina, we make no apology for devoting a portion of our editorial space each week to a notice of the contents of OUR LIVING AND OUR DEAD.

The second issue contains, on the first page, a tribute in verses to the memory of the gallant STEPHEN D. RAMSEUR, one of the bravest of the brave, who fell in the valley of Virginia, at the head of his command. "THE EMPTY SLEEVE," a war poem by Dr. George W. Bagby, is also given.

The "ROLL OF HONOR" this week includes a brief sketch of the Third Regiment of State Troops, by Stephen D. Thraston, Colonel, and also of the Fourth Regiment by Bryan Grimes, Colonel. These sketches extend only to November, 1863. Col. Grimes was subsequently promoted, first to a Brigadier and then to a Major Generalship.

"FROM THE DIARY OF A YOUNG LADY, 1861," extends from Jan. 1st, to Jan. 31st, giving important historical events during that month.

"A BRIEF HISTORICAL SKETCH, written by one of the first men in North Carolina," is continued from the last number.

The second page contains some short editorial articles, one of which compliments the gallantly of the soldiers of the United States, and says truly that the glory achieved by the Confederates in battle was not won in a contest with an army of cowards.

"THE OCCUPATION OF FORT CASWELL" forms an interesting chapter of history. The Fort was taken possession of by a volunteer company from Wilmington, in January 1861, before the secession of North Carolina. Governor Ellis promptly ordered the withdrawal of the volunteers and their surrender of the Fort to the United States authorities. The official correspondence on the subject is published.

"EXTRACTS FROM GOV. ELLIS' MESSAGE, NOVEMBER 1860," on the subject of our Federal relations, next appears. This is an important document. The wrongs of the South, the oppressive spirit of the North, the consequences that would probably result from the election of Lincoln, the certainty of civil war in case the Government should attempt to use the military power of the nation to keep the Southern States against their will, in the Union, the duty of North Carolina in the then perilous condition of the country, are each forcibly presented. Gov. Ellis recommended the exhaustion of every peaceable remedy for the solution of our difficulties, and a firm determination to maintain our rights "in the Union if possible, and out of it, if necessary."

"EXTRACTS FROM A DIARY KEPT BY GOV. ELLIS" embrace a period from October the 30th, 1860, to December 31st, of the same year, and give some important official events and interviews.

The following letter from Colonel Kenan to Col. S. D. Pool, Newbern, N. C., concludes the historical portion of the second issue:

"DEAR COL:—In looking over the first number of Our Living and Our Dead, I think the following errors occur under the head of "A Bloody but Glorious Record."

M. A. Parks, 52d Regiment was not killed, but was a prisoner with me at Johnson's Island.

K. M. Murchison, 54th Regiment was not killed, but at Johnson's Island also, and is now in New York.

John R. Murchison, Lt. Col. 8th Regiment, was killed at Cold Harbor, or near there, in June, 1864.

Yours, truly, THOS. S. KENAN.
Wilson, July 7th, 1873."

THE SUIT AGAINST THE RICHMOND & DANVILLE ROAD.

There are two points made in Mr. Webb's complaint against the Richmond & Danville Road which deserve special attention, viz: the one in regard to the security of the annual rent for the lease of the North Carolina Road, and the other in regard to the violation of the stipulations.

So far as the legality of the lease itself is concerned, that will be tested before the Courts, and is for judicial decision alone, being purely a question of law. The counsel for Mr. Webb, Gov. Graham, and W. N. H. Smith and Joseph B. Batchelor, Esqr's., hold that the North Carolina Railroad Company had no authority to make the lease. That the Board of Directors that effected it were not a legal body, but that if the Directors had been regularly and lawfully appointed, it would have been an usurpation of power for them to have made the grant.

Mr. Webb contends that the rent is inadequate. But if the lease is legal, the inadequacy of the rent will not justify the Court in cancelling the contract.

The Richmond & Danville Company contracted to pay as annual rent for the lease of the North Carolina Road for the term of thirty years, the sum of two hundred and sixty thousand dollars, "secured as to annual payment nominally, by a deposit in bank during said lease, of the sum of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars in cash or its equivalent, 'at all times in United States bonds, or railroad company bonds, or other acceptable bonds.' This security is then modified by a further stipulation, to-wit, that it may be substituted by a deposit of first mortgage bonds of the said Richmond & Danville Railroad Company, to the amount of seventy thousand dollars, of first mortgage bonds of the Piedmont Railroad Company of eighty thousand dollars, and of bonds of the Atlanta & Richmond Air Line Railway Company of fifty thousand dollars, that these three Companies being as the plaintiff alleges, but one interest, all owned by the same stock holders, in capital and effects, as the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company; and the supposed security of one hundred and thirty thousand in cash, &c., being resolved into the bonds of the alleged lessee, under three different names of Companies, 'all under mortgages, and as the plaintiff is informed, deeply indebted, no one of them having ever declared a dividend and the stock of the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company, believed to be the most valuable of them in the market, now being sold as quoted in Richmond at nineteen and a half to twenty dollars in the hundred. And the said pretended security is thus dwindled down into the supposed lessee giving its bonds for the same theretofore stipulated to be paid it, and nothing more."

The other point of importance referred to by Mr. Webb is the violation by the Richmond & Danville Road of the restrictions in the lease, in regard to the charges for freight and passenger fare. By the terms of the contract the Danville Road agreed that it would not fix the rates of local freight at a higher average price than the tariff established by the North Carolina Road on the first day of September 1869, and also agreed that the passenger fare should not be raised. These provisions, it is charged, have been violated by the Danville Road.

THE FORMATION OF AN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

One practical step taken by the North Carolina Educational Convention was the organization of a State Educational Association.

There were some important questions discussed during the three days the Contion was in session. The system of common and graded schools, the University, denominational colleges, compulsory education, agricultural instruction, and the inadequate provisions for the support of popular education in North Carolina, were some of the interesting themes that claimed the attention of the delegates.

Resolutions were passed to memorialize Congress on the subject of extending national aid to the States for the support of education; and also to memorialize the Legislature of North Carolina to establish "in each school district a common school, in which shall be taught spelling, reading, writing, primary geography, and the elementary rules of arithmetic."

The Convention did not recommend a positive compulsory system, but adopted a resolution deploring the compulsory ignorance in which some of the children of the State are kept, and asking that they be enfranchised under that clause of the Constitution which gave the Legislature the power to enforce compulsory instruction. This is substantially an endorsement of the compulsory system.

The election of that eminent jurist and high-toned gentleman, Hon. William H. Battle, as President of the Educational Association for the ensuing year, is an excellent one. The other officers are competent and worthy. The Executive Committee, of which Gen. W. R. Cox is Chairman, will have much important work for consideration. Among other matters, the question of establishing a State Educational journal will engage their early attention.

On the whole, the Convention has accomplished some good. It has given a fresh impetus to the cause of education in the State, and we look for good results from its deliberations.

DON'T FORGET THE ELECTION.

On Thursday the seventh day of August, the people of North Carolina, without distinction of party, will be called upon to cast their votes for certain material alterations in the organic law of the State.

It is highly important that all who approve the proposed amendments should cast their votes in favor of the same.

In ordinary county and State elections, it is quite easy for individuals who are candidates for office, to get up excitement and bring out a full vote of the people. In the squabble for spoils and office, personal and political quarrels and discussions at public meetings ordinarily elicit popular interest in the election.

For once, in the history of the State, the contest will be devoid of excitement. There are no party issues involved. It will be an election without a canvass. Political strife, violent feelings, party rancor, personal abuse and vituperation, will not enter into the campaign.

Members of both parties will be found for once standing side by side and voting together for the best interests of the whole State.

The opposition to the amendments is not strong, and is to be found chiefly, if not exclusively, in the ranks of a small faction of the Radical party. That opposition will not poll a respectable vote in many counties; but it is the duty of those who favor the amendments to be on their guard, and see to it that they are not led into ambush by an insignificant foe.

In order to be on the safe side, let us all go to the election on the seventh day of August and vote for the amendments.

I have used Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator in my family for Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, and regard it as an invaluable remedy in these attacks. It has not failed to give relief in any instance.
REV. W. F. EASTERLING,
Florida Conference.

As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. Sold by all first-class druggists.

How unnecessary the anguish many persons undergo from rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, toothache and earache. We say unnecessary because the application of Mexican Mustang Liniment to the affected part, or a few drops of it in the ears or tooth, affords instantaneous, and what is better, permanent relief. For cuts, wounds, bruises, swellings, and all injuries or diseases which require treatment externally, this liniment is everywhere regarded as the most potent and reliable healing agent in existence. For all external injuries or ailments of horses and cattle, it is infallible.

His Honor, HENRY POTTER, late Judge of the United States Court for the District of North Carolina, gave the following as his opinion of Beckwith's Pills:

"For some ten or twelve years past I have been in the habit of using DR. BECKWITH'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS in my family, and consider them so valuable a domestic medicine, that I never suffer my stock to be exhausted. I have used them with good effect in dyspeptic cases, under various modifications, and have found them efficacious in relieving from Sick Headache, and from all the usual symptoms of functional derangement of the viscera. As an apperient, they are excellent. I have long had the pleasure of an intimate acquaintance with the inventor of these Pills. He is a gentleman of talents, integrity and worth, and he ranks high in the science of medicine and the healing art.
H. POTTER."

Prepared by E. R. Beckwith, (successor to Dr. John Beckwith) Proprietor, Petersburg, Va. Sold by Druggist generally at 25 cents per box. Joseph Carr, Wholesale Agent, Petersburg, Va.

On last Monday two ladies from Georgia were put off the train at Rocky Mount. They had bought a through ticket to Washington city and had expressed their money. Says the Milton Chronicle: "The wheat crop in this section has been reaped, and it is a fair average in quantity and in quality it is unsurpassed.

The oat crop is very promising.

The tobacco crop is very unpromising. The grasshopper, worm and fly have played havoc with the young plants that did not perish in the planting, and the indications are that half a crop will not be made.

Nash county has a curiosity in the person of William Henry Pope, who is 22 years old, measures 3 feet 11 inches in his boots and weighs 48 pounds. The following story is told of him: During the war the father of the young man was conscripted and carried to the army—he soon returned home, with a perfect horror of the war and hatred for conscript officers; calling for the curses of the Almighty upon the heads of his tormentors, he turned to his boy saying "yes and in a short time they will have you, and I hope and pray to God that you will never grow another inch from this minute." William Henry never has grown another inch; before this he was a fine thrifty boy. The Rocky Mount Mail is responsible for the above.

A curious illustration of the very wide difference between law and equity is afforded by the decision of a Kentucky court in the disputed will of one Chas Amaun, deceased, whose testament, made before marriage, devised all his property to the lady who afterwards became his wife and who is now his widow. The intention of the testator was clear, but he was ignorant of the technical circumstance that matrimony annulled his bequest, and consequently the court rules that the legatee who was manifestly meant to have all shall only have her right of dower, the bulk of the estate being awarded to collateral heirs at law who were not meant to have any of it.

A box turtle found by Mr. Harlow, of Boston, July 4, 1833, and marked by him, was found again in 1847 in Raynham; and July 2, 1873, was again found at North Raynham—just forty years from date, and about eight miles from the spot of first marking.

LOVE'S LAST RELIC.

Only a little silken curl,
Cut from the head of a laughing girl
In happy long ago;
But alas! the laughing girl is dead,
And from my life the light is fled,
For, O! I loved her so!

Only a little lock of hair
That crowned my darling bright and fair
Before death's parting blow;
Yet it brings me back her vanished charms,
Her pressing lips and clinging arms,
For, O! I loved her so!

Only a little golden tress
That used my sweet one's cheek to press,
And o'er her shoulders flow;
But, looking back through long gone years,
A holy thing that tress appears,
For, O! I loved her so!

Only a little sunny shred
By which my heart was captive led
In happy youth—and lo!
It still leads on through grief and pain
To where the parted meet again,
For, O! I loved her so!

Only a little ringlet fair,
Only a dead girl's glossy hair,
But worlds could not bestow
Treasure enough to fill its place,
And summon back the one lost face
That I have worshipped so!

Bitten by a Rattlesnake—A Singular Case.

A letter dated Cornwall, N. Y., July 8, says: On Saturday, June 28, Joseph Hulse, a wood-chopper of this place, was bitten by a rattlesnake. While on Storm King Mountain, five miles up, he enconntered a serpent, and wanting one for a friend who had rheumatism—the belief of many hereabouts being that snake grease is a cure for it—he chased the snake, which took refuge in a wood-pile, and Hulse seized him by the back of the neck, but not so far from the head that it contrived to turn and plant one of its fangs in the index finger of his right hand. Hulse held fast to his snake, nevertheless, stamped his head off, and then spent half an hour in looking for white ash leaves, which are believed to be an antidote for the poison. He found none to suit him, however, and started for Cornwall. He was bitten at 7, and it was 11 o'clock when he reached the village, and Dr. Beattie was summoned.

At this time the arm and finger were very much swollen, and very gangrenous, the action of the heart had almost ceased, and the man seemed like one in a state of intoxication. Dr. Beattie hastily cut the finger open, and administered two quarts of whiskey in twenty minutes; laudanum and quinine were also given in large quantities, and notwithstanding the loss of three half pints of blood from the finger, the pulse increased, and Hulse became perfectly conscious. He is, after eleven days, in apparently good health, with excellent appetite, but as black as any African in New York. The black is occasionally streaked with blue, purple and green, which appear and disappear alternately. He is in the hands of Mr. John Brookes, and may be seen by any physician or other person who is desirous of making an investigation.

Some years ago both Queen Victoria and the Empress Eugenie caused inquiries to be instituted as to the best mode of rendering fabrics uninflamable. So many accidents were of almost daily occurrence at the time. There were often sickening recitals of cases of gauzily-clad ballet girls who stepped too near the foot-lights, and happy guests at parties who, in light, voluminous dresses swept them over the open fire, where they caught like tinder. Close stoves and more thorough protection of exposed lights at all entertainments have lessened the danger, but there is still a need of some easy mode of making all fabrics, when desired, fire-proof. The French chemists employed by the Empress made several reports, but a simple, practicable method is still wanted. A new process is, equal parts of chloride or calcium and acetate of lime, so mixed as to form crystals, and applied in the starch. One trial, given by M. Buvert at Compeigne, is picturesque: M. Buvert's dress was both fire-proof and water-proof. He wore a helmet like that of a diver, with an apparatus for supplying fresh air, and glasses to see through. At a given signal he set fire to a temporary cottage, and when the flames got well ahead, he went into the midst of them several times with perfect impunity.

Dooley's Yeast Powder cannot be excelled for making light, sweet Rolls, Biscuits, Waffles, Corn Bread, &c. It is always ready and reliable.
